In paragraph (30)(A)(ii) delete “a gift card”, and in paragraph (30)(B) delete the brackets around the words “gift card.” States that wish to exempt gift cards without regard to whether they expire may delete paragraph 11(A)(i).

In-store credits: A state that wants to exclude in-store credits for returned merchandise from unclaimed property should remove the brackets to paragraph (24)(C)(iv) and retain the language. A state that wants to include these credits should delete subparagraph (C)(iv).

Business-to-business: Fifteen states have some form of statutory exemption from “property” a right arising from transactions taking place in the course of a business-to-business relationship. A state that wants to continue to exempt this type of property will need to include in this section its definition of a business-to-business relationship and specifically state in the definition of “property” in paragraph 102(24)(C) that it does not include property arising from a business-to-business relationship.

(30) “Stored-value card.” The definition of a stored-value card includes a payroll card and a gift card. A state that exempts gift cards may continue to do so by deleting “a gift card” in paragraph (30)(A)(ii). A state that does not exempt gift cards will need to remove the brackets around the words “a gift card” in paragraph (30)(A)(ii) and retain the words, and delete the words “gift card” in brackets in paragraph (30)(B).

(7) any other action by the apparent owner which reasonably demonstrates to the holder that the apparent owner knows that the property exists.

(c) An action by an agent or other representative of an apparent owner, other than the holder acting as the apparent owner's agent, is presumed to be an action on behalf of the apparent owner.

(d) A communication with an apparent owner by a person other than the holder or the holder's representative is not an indication of interest in the property by the apparent owner unless a record of the communication evidences the apparent owner's knowledge of a right to the property.

(e) If the insured dies or the insured or beneficiary of an insurance policy otherwise becomes entitled to the proceeds before depletion of the cash surrender value of the policy by operation of an automatic-premium-loan provision or other nonforfeiture provision contained in the policy, the operation does not prevent the policy from maturing or terminating.

SECTION 211. KNOWLEDGE OF DEATH OF INSURED OR ANNUITANT.

(a) In this section, “death master file” means the United States Social Security Administration Death Master File or other database or service that is at least as comprehensive as the United States Social Security Administration Death Master File for determining that an individual reportedly has died.

(b) With respect to a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract for which an amount is owed on proof of death, but which has not matured by proof of death of the insured or annuitant, the company has knowledge of the death of an insured or annuitant when:

(1) the company receives a death certificate or court order determining that the insured or annuitant has died;

(2) due diligence, performed as required under state law and regulations relating to the business of insurance to maintain contact with the insured or annuitant or determine whether the insured or annuitant has died, validates the death of the insured or annuitant;

(3) the company conducts a comparison for any purpose between a death master file and the names of some or all of the company’s insureds or annuitants, finds a match that provides notice that the insured or annuitant has died, and validates the death;

(4) the administrator or the administrator’s agent conducts a comparison for the purpose of finding matches during an examination conducted under Article 10 between a death master file and the names of some or all of the company’s insureds or annuitants, finds a match that provides notice that the insured or annuitant has died, and the company validates the death;
or

(5) the company:

(A) receives notice of the death of the insured or annuitant from an administrator, beneficiary, policy owner, relative of the insured, or trustee or from an executor], or other legal representative of the insured’s or annuitant’s estate; and

(B) validates the death of the insured or annuitant.

(c) The following rules apply under this section:

(1) A death-master-file match under subsection (b)(3) or (4) occurs if the criteria for an exact or partial match are satisfied as provided by:

(A) law of this state other than this act;

(B) a rule or policy adopted by the Department of Banking and Insurance;

or

(C) absent a law, rule, or policy under subparagraph (A) or (B) standards in the National Conference of Insurance Legislators’ “Model Unclaimed Life Insurance Benefits Act” as published in 2014.

(2) The death-master-file match does not constitute proof of death for the purpose of submission to an insurance company of a claim by a beneficiary, annuitant, or owner of the policy or contract for an amount due under an insurance policy or annuity contract.

(3) The death-master-file match or validation of the insured's or annuitant's death does not alter the requirements for a beneficiary, annuitant, or owner of the policy or contract to make a claim to receive proceeds under the terms of the policy or contract.

(4) If no provision in insurance statutes or rules which establishes a time for validation of a death of an insured or annuitant, the insurance company shall make a good faith effort using other available records and information to validate the death and document the effort taken not later than 90 days after the insurance company has notice of the death.

(d) This act does not affect the determination of the extent to which an insurance company before the effective date of this act had knowledge of the death of an insured or annuitant or was required to conduct a death-master-file comparison to determine whether amounts owed by the company on a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract were presumed abandoned or unclaimed.

SECTION 212. DEPOSIT ACCOUNT FOR PROCEEDS OF INSURANCE POLICY OR ANNUITY CONTRACT.

If proceeds payable under a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract are deposited into an account with check or draft-writing privileges for the beneficiary of the policy or contract and, under a supplementary contract not involving annuity benefits other than death benefits, the proceeds are retained by the insurance company or the financial organization where the account is held, the policy or contract includes the assets in the account.

SECTION 301. ADDRESS OF APPARENT OWNER TO ESTABLISH PRIORITY.

In this article, the following rules apply:

(1) The last-known address of an apparent owner is any description, code, or other indication of the location of the apparent owner which identifies the state, even if the description, code, or indication of location is not sufficient to direct the delivery of first-class United States mail to the apparent owner.

(2) If the United States postal zip code associated with the apparent owner is for a post office located in this state, this state is deemed to be the state of the last-known address of the apparent owner unless other records associated with the apparent owner specifically identify the physical address of the apparent owner to be in another state.

(3) If the address under paragraph (2) is in another state, the other state is deemed to be the state of the last-known address of the apparent owner.

(4) The address of the apparent owner of a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract or its proceeds is presumed to be the address of the insured or annuitant if a person other than the insured or annuitant is entitled to the amount owed under the policy or contract and the address of the other person is not known by the insurance company and cannot be determined under Section 302.

SECTION 302. ADDRESS OF APPARENT OWNER IN THIS STATE.

The administrator may take custody of property that is presumed abandoned, whether located in this state, another state, or a foreign country if:

(1) the last-known address of the apparent owner in the records of the holder is in this state; or

(2) the records of the holder do not reflect the identity or last-known address of the apparent owner, but the administrator has determined that the last-known address of the apparent owner is in this state.

SECTION 303. IF RECORDS SHOW MULTIPLE ADDRESSES OF APPARENT OWNER.

(a) Except as in subsection (b), if records of a holder reflect multiple addresses for an apparent owner and this state is the state of the most recently recorded address, this state may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this state or another state.

(b) If it appears from records of the holder that the most recently recorded address of the apparent owner under subsection (a) is a temporary address and this state is the state of the next most recently recorded address that is not a temporary address, this state may take custody of the property presumed abandoned.

SECTION 304. HOLDER DOMICILED IN THIS STATE.

(a) Except as in subsection (b) or Section 302 or 303, the administrator may take custody of property presumed abandoned, whether located in this state, another state, or a foreign country, if the holder is domiciled in this state or is this state or a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state, and

(1) another state or foreign country is not entitled to the property because there is no last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property in the records of the holder; or

(2) the state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property does not provide for custodial taking of the property.

(b) Property is not subject to custody of the administrator under subsection (a) if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of this state or the state or foreign country of the last-known address of the apparent owner.

(c) If a holder's state of domicile has changed since the time property was presumed abandoned, the holder's state of domicile in this section is deemed to be the state where the holder was domiciled at the time the property was presumed abandoned.

SECTION 305. CUSTODY IF TRANSACTION TOOK PLACE IN THIS STATE.

Except as in Section 302, 303, or 304, the administrator may take custody of property presumed abandoned whether located in this state or another state if:

- (1) the transaction out of which the property arose took place in this state;
- (2) the holder is domiciled in a state that does not provide for the custodial taking of the property, except that if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of the state of the holder's domicile, the property is not subject to the custody of the administrator; and
- (3) the last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property is unknown or in a state that does not provide for the custodial taking of the property, except that if the property is specifically exempt from custodial taking under the law of the state of the last-known address, the property is not subject to the custody of the administrator.

SECTION 306. TRAVELER'S CHECK, MONEY ORDER, OR SIMILAR INSTRUMENT.

The administrator may take custody of sums payable on a traveler's check, money order, or similar instrument presumed abandoned to the extent permissible under [12 U.S.C. Sections 2501 through 2503, as amended federal law.

SECTION 307. BURDEN OF PROOF TO ESTABLISH ADMINISTRATOR'S RIGHT TO CUSTODY.

If the administrator asserts a right to custody of unclaimed property, the administrator has the burden to prove:

- (1) the existence and amount of the property;
- (2) the property is presumed abandoned; and
- (3) the property is subject to the custody of the administrator.

ARTICLE 4

(c) A report under Section 401 may include personal information as defined in Section 1401(a) about the apparent owner or the apparent owner's property to the extent not otherwise prohibited by federal law.

The administrator may grant an extension. If the extension is granted, the holder may pay or make a partial payment of the amount the holder estimates ultimately will be due. The payment or partial payment terminates accrual of interest on the amount paid.

SECTION 404. RETENTION OF RECORDS BY HOLDER.

SECTION 501. NOTICE TO APPARENT OWNER BY HOLDER.

(a) Subject to subsection (b), the holder of property presumed abandoned shall send to the apparent owner notice by first-class United States mail that complies with Section 502 in a format acceptable to the administrator not more than 180 days nor less than 60 days before filing the report under Section 401 if:

(2) the value of the property is $50 or more.

(b) If an apparent owner has consented to receive electronic-mail delivery from the holder, the holder shall send the notice described in subsection (a) both by first-class United States mail to the apparent owner's last-known mailing address and by electronic mail, unless the holder believes that the apparent owner's electronic-mail address is invalid.

(b) In providing notice under subsection (a), the administrator shall:

(1) except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2), send written notice by first-class United States mail to each apparent owner of property valued at $[50] or more held by the administrator, unless the administrator determines that a mailing by first-class United States mail would not be received by the apparent owner, and, in the case of a security held in an account for which the apparent owner had consented to receiving electronic mail from the holder, send notice by electronic mail if the electronic-mail address of the apparent owner is known to the administrator instead of by first-class United States mail; or

(2) send the notice to the apparent owner's electronic-mail address if the administrator does not have a valid United States mail address for an apparent owner, but has an electronic-mail address that the administrator does not know to be invalid.

(c) In addition to the notice under subsection (b), the administrator shall:

(1) publish every six months in at least one newspaper of general circulation in each county in this state notice of property held by the administrator which must include:

Unless prohibited by law of this state other than this act, on request of the administrator, each officer, agency, board, commission, division, and department of this state, any body politic and corporate created by this state for a public purpose, and each political subdivision of this state shall make its books and records available to the administrator and cooperate with the administrator to determine the current address of an apparent owner of property held by the administrator under this act.

ARTICLE 6

TAKING CUSTODY OF PROPERTY BY ADMINISTRATOR

SECTION 601. DEFINITION OF GOOD FAITH.

In this article, payment or delivery of property is made in good faith if a holder:

(1) had a reasonable basis for believing, based on the facts then known, that the property was required or permitted to be paid or delivered to the administrator under this act; or

(2) made payment or delivery:

(A) in response to a demand by the administrator or administrator's agent;

or

(B) under a guidance or ruling issued by the administrator which the holder reasonably believed required or permitted the property to be paid or delivered.

SECTION 602. DORMANCY CHARGE.

(a) A holder may deduct a dormancy charge from property required to be paid or delivered to the administrator if:

(1) a valid contract between the holder and the apparent owner authorizes imposition of the charge for the apparent owner's failure to claim the property within a specified time; and

(2) the holder regularly imposes the charge and regularly does not reverse or otherwise cancel the charge.

(b) The amount of the deduction under subsection (a) is limited to an amount that is not unconscionable considering all relevant factors, including the marginal transactional costs incurred by the holder in maintaining the apparent owner's property and any services received by the apparent owner.

SECTION 603. PAYMENT OR DELIVERY OF PROPERTY TO ADMINISTRATOR.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, on filing a report under Section 401, the holder shall pay or deliver to the administrator the property described in the report.

(b) If property in a report under Section 401 is an automatically renewable deposit and a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result from paying the deposit to the administrator at the time of the report, the date for payment of the property to the administrator is extended until a penalty or forfeiture no longer would result from payment, if the holder informs the administrator of the extended date.

(c) Tangible property in a safe-deposit box may not be delivered to the administrator until 120 days after filing the report under Section 401.

(d) If property reported to the administrator under Section 401 is a security, the administrator may:

(1) make an endorsement, instruction, or entitlement order on behalf of the apparent owner to invoke the duty of the issuer, its transfer agent, or the securities intermediary to transfer the security; or

(2) dispose of the security under Section 702.

(e) If the holder of property reported to the administrator under Section 401 is the issuer of a certificated security, the administrator may obtain a replacement certificate in physical or book-entry form under the Uniform Commercial Code, N.J.S. 12A: 8-405. An indemnity bond is not required.

(f) The administrator shall establish procedures for the registration, issuance, method of delivery, transfer, and maintenance of securities delivered to the administrator by a holder.

(g) An issuer, holder, and transfer agent or other person acting under this section under instructions of and on behalf of the issuer or holder is not liable to the apparent owner for, and must be indemnified by the state against, a claim arising with respect to property after the property has been delivered to the administrator.

(h) A holder is not required to deliver to the administrator a security identified by the holder as a non-freely transferable security. If the administrator or holder determines that a security is no longer a non-freely transferable security, the holder shall deliver the security on the next regular date prescribed for delivery of securities under this act. The holder shall make a determination annually whether a security identified in a report filed under Section 401 as a non-freely transferable security is no longer a non-freely transferable security.

SECTION 604. EFFECT OF PAYMENT OR DELIVERY OF PROPERTY TO ADMINISTRATOR.

(a) On payment or delivery of property to the administrator under this act, the administrator as agent for the state assumes custody and responsibility for safekeeping the property. A holder that pays or delivers property to the administrator in good faith and substantially complies with Sections 501 and 502 is relieved of liability arising thereafter with respect to payment or delivery of the property to the administrator.

(b) This state shall defend and indemnify a holder against liability on a claim against the holder resulting from the payment or delivery of property to the administrator made in good faith and after the holder substantially complied with Sections 501 and 502.

SECTION 605. RECOVERY OF PROPERTY BY HOLDER FROM ADMINISTRATOR.

(a) A holder that under this act pays money to the administrator may file a claim for reimbursement from the administrator of the amount paid if the holder:

(1) paid the money in error; or

(2) after paying the money to the administrator, paid money to a person the holder reasonably believed entitled to the money.

(b) If a claim for reimbursement under subsection (a) is made for a payment made on a negotiable instrument, including a traveler's check, money order, or similar instrument, the holder must submit proof that the instrument was presented and payment was made to a person the holder reasonably believed entitled to payment. The holder may claim reimbursement even if the payment was made to a person whose claim was made after expiration of a period of limitation on the owner's right to receive or recover property, whether specified by contract, statute, or court order.

(c) If a holder is reimbursed by the administrator under subsection (a)(2), the holder may also recover from the administrator income or gain under Section 607 that would have been paid to the owner if the money had been claimed from the administrator by the owner to the extent the income or gain was paid by the holder to the owner.

(d) A holder that under this act delivers property other than money to the administrator may file a claim for return of the property from the administrator if:

- (1) the holder delivered the property in error; or
- (2) the apparent owner has claimed the property from the holder.

(e) If a claim for return of property under subsection (d) is made, the holder shall include with the claim evidence sufficient to establish that the apparent owner has claimed the property from the holder or that the property was delivered by the holder to the administrator in error.

(f) The administrator may determine that an affidavit submitted by a holder is evidence sufficient to establish that the holder is entitled to reimbursement or to recover property under this section.

(g) A holder is not required to pay a fee or other charge for reimbursement or return of property under this section.

(h) Not later than 90 days after a claim is filed under subsection (a) or (d), the administrator shall allow or deny the claim and give the claimant notice of the decision in a record. If the administrator does not take action on a claim during the 90 day period, the claim is deemed denied.

(i) The claimant may initiate an administrative proceeding for review of the administrator's decision or the deemed denial under subsection (h) not later than:

- (1) Thirty days following receipt of the notice of the administrator's decision; or
- (2) One hundred twenty days following the filing of a claim under subsection (a) or (d) in the case of a deemed denial under subsection (h).

(j) A final decision in an administrative proceeding initiated under subsection (i) is subject to judicial review by the [court][as a matter of right in a de novo proceeding on the record in which either party is entitled to introduce evidence as a supplement to the record].

SECTION 606. PROPERTY REMOVED FROM SAFE-DEPOSIT BOX.

Property removed from a safe-deposit box and delivered under this act to the administrator under this act is subject to the holder's right to reimbursement for the cost of opening the box and a lien or contract providing reimbursement to the holder for unpaid rent charges for the box. The administrator shall reimburse the holder from the proceeds remaining after deducting the expense incurred by the administrator in selling the property.

SECTION 607. CREDITING INCOME OR GAIN TO OWNER'S ACCOUNT.

(a) If property other than money is delivered to the administrator, the owner is entitled to receive from the administrator income or gain realized or accrued on the property before the property is sold. If the property was an interest-bearing demand, savings, or time deposit, the administrator shall pay interest at the lesser of the rate of [insert legal rate] or the rate the property earned while in the possession of the holder. Interest begins to accrue when the property is delivered to the administrator and ends on the earlier of the expiration of 10 years after its delivery or the date on which payment is made to the owner.

(b) Interest on interest-bearing property is not payable under this section for any period before the effective date of this act, unless authorized by law superseded by this act.

SECTION 608. ADMINISTRATOR'S OPTIONS AS TO CUSTODY.

(a) The administrator may decline to take custody of property reported under Section 401 if the administrator determines that:

(1) the property has a value less than the estimated expenses of notice and sale of the property; or

(2) taking custody of the property would be unlawful.

(b) A holder may pay or deliver property to the administrator before the property is presumed abandoned under this act if the holder:

(1) sends the apparent owner of the property notice required by Section 501 and provides the administrator evidence of the holder's compliance with this paragraph;

(2) includes with the payment or delivery a report regarding the property conforming to Section 402; and

(3) first obtains the administrator's consent in a record to accept payment or delivery.

(c) A holder's request for the administrator's consent under subsection (b)(3) must be in a record. If the administrator fails to respond to the request not later than 30 days after receipt of the request, the administrator is deemed to consent to the payment or delivery of the property and the payment or delivery is considered to have been made in good faith.

(d) On payment or delivery of property under subsection (b), the property is presumed abandoned.

SECTION 609. DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY HAVING NO SUBSTANTIAL VALUE; IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.

[(a)] If the administrator takes custody of property delivered under this [act] and later determines that the property has no substantial commercial value or that the cost of disposing of the property will exceed the value of the property, the administrator may return the property to the holder or destroy or otherwise dispose of the property.

[(b) An action or proceeding may not be commenced against the state, an agency of the state, the administrator, another officer, employee, or agent of the state, or a holder for or because of an act of the administrator under this section, except for intentional misconduct or malfeasance.]

Legislative Note: A state should determine whether subsection (b) is covered by its sovereign immunity tort claims act and decide how to proceed with subsection (b). If it chooses not to include subsection (b), the state should remove it and the brackets from around [a].

SECTION 610. PERIODS OF LIMITATION AND REPOSE.

(a) Expiration, before, on, or after the effective date of this act, of a period of limitation on an owner's right to receive or recover property, whether specified by contract, statute, or court order, does not prevent the property from being presumed abandoned or affect the duty of a holder under this act to file a report or pay or deliver property to the administrator.

(b) The administrator may not commence an action or proceeding to enforce this act with respect to the reporting, payment, or delivery of property more than five years after the holder filed a non-fraudulent report under Section 401 with the administrator. The parties may agree in a record to extend the limitation in this subsection.

(c) The administrator may not commence an action, proceeding, or examination with respect to a duty of a holder under this [act] more than 10 years after the duty arose.

ARTICLE 7

SALE OF PROPERTY BY ADMINISTRATOR

SECTION 701. PUBLIC SALE OF PROPERTY.

(a) Subject to Section 702, not earlier than [three] years after receipt of property presumed abandoned, the administrator may sell the property.

(b) Before selling property under subsection (a), the administrator shall give notice to the public of:

- (1) the date of the sale; and
- (2) a reasonable description of the property.

(c) A sale under subsection (a) must be to the highest bidder:

(1) at public sale at a location in this state which the administrator determines to be the most favorable market for the property;

(2) on the Internet; or

(3) on another forum the administrator determines is likely to yield the highest net proceeds of sale.

(d) The administrator may decline the highest bid at a sale under this section and reoffer the property for sale if the administrator determines the highest bid is insufficient.

(e) If a sale held under this section is to be conducted other than on the Internet, the administrator must publish at least one notice of the sale, at least three weeks but not more than five weeks before the sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is sold.

SECTION 702. DISPOSAL OF SECURITIES.

(a) The administrator may not sell or otherwise liquidate a security until three years after the administrator receives the security and gives the apparent owner notice under Section 503 that the administrator holds the security.

(b) The administrator may not sell a security listed on an established stock exchange for less than the price prevailing on the exchange at the time of sale. The administrator may sell a security not listed on an established exchange by any commercially-reasonable method.

SECTION 703. RECOVERY OF SECURITIES OR VALUE BY OWNER.

(a) If the administrator sells a security before the expiration of six years after delivery of the security to the administrator, an apparent owner that files a valid claim under this act of ownership of the security before the six-year period expires is entitled, at the option of the administrator, to receive:

(1) replacement of the security; or

(2) the market value of the security at the time the claim is filed, plus dividends, interest, and other increments on the security up to the time the claim is paid.

(b) Replacement of the security or calculation of market value under subsection (a) must take into account a stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend, or similar corporate action.

(c) A person that makes a valid claim under this act of ownership of a security after expiration of six years after delivery of the security to the administrator is entitled to receive:

(1) the security the holder delivered to the administrator, if it is in the custody of the administrator, plus dividends, interest, and other increments on the security up to the time the administrator delivers the security to the person; or

(2) the net proceeds of the sale of the security, plus dividends, interest, and other increments on the security up to the time the security was sold.

SECTION 704. PURCHASER OWNS PROPERTY AFTER SALE.

A purchaser of property at a sale conducted by the administrator under this act takes the property free of all claims of the owner, a previous holder, or a person claiming through the owner or holder. The administrator shall execute documents necessary to complete the transfer of ownership to the purchaser.

SECTION 705. MILITARY MEDAL OR DECORATION.

(a) The administrator may not sell a medal or decoration awarded for military service in the armed forces of the United States.

(b) The administrator, with the consent of the respective organization under paragraph (1), agency under paragraph (2), or entity under paragraph (3), may deliver a medal or decoration described in subsection (a) to be held in custody for the owner, to:

(1) a military veterans organization qualified under the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, 26 U.S.C. Section 501(c)(19);

(b) The administrator shall maintain an account with an amount of funds the administrator reasonably estimates is sufficient to pay claims allowed under this act in each fiscal year. If the aggregate amount of claims by owners allowed at any time exceeds the amount held in the account, an excess claim must be paid out of the general funds of the state.

SECTION 802. ADMINISTRATOR TO RETAIN RECORDS OF PROPERTY.

The administrator shall:

(1) record and retain the name and last-known address of each person shown on a report filed under Section 401 to be the apparent owner of property delivered to the administrator;

SECTION 804. ADMINISTRATOR HOLDS PROPERTY AS CUSTODIAN FOR OWNER.

Property received by the administrator under this act is held in custody for the benefit of the owner and is not owned by the state.

ARTICLE 9

SECTION 901. CLAIM OF ANOTHER STATE TO RECOVER PROPERTY.

(b) The administrator is not required to enter into an agreement to transfer property to the other state under subsection (a).

SECTION 902. WHEN PROPERTY SUBJECT TO RECOVERY BY ANOTHER STATE.

(a) Property held under this act by the administrator is subject to the right of another state to take custody of the property if:

(1) the property was paid or delivered to the administrator because the records of the holder did not reflect a last-known address in the other state of the apparent owner and:

(A) the other state establishes that the last-known address of the apparent owner or other person entitled to the property was in the other state; or

(B) under the law of the other state, the property has become subject to a claim by the other state of abandonment;

(3) the property was subject to the custody of the administrator of this state under Section 305 and, under the law of the state of domicile of the holder, the property has become subject to a claim by the state of domicile of the holder of abandonment; or

(4) the property:

(A) is a sum payable on a traveler's check, money order, or similar instrument that was purchased in the other state and delivered to the administrator under Section 306; and

(B) under the law of the other state, has become subject to a claim by the other state of abandonment.

(b) A claim by another state to recover property under this section must be presented in a form prescribed by the administrator, unless the administrator waives presentation of the form.

(c) The administrator shall decide a claim under this section not later than 90 days after it is presented. If the administrator determines that the other state is entitled under subsection (a) to custody of the property, the administrator shall allow the claim and pay or deliver the property to the other state.

(d) The administrator may require another state, before recovering property under this section, to agree to indemnify this state and its agents, officers and employees against any liability on a claim to the property.

SECTION 903. CLAIM FOR PROPERTY BY PERSON CLAIMING TO BE OWNER.

(a) A person claiming to be the owner of property held under this act by the administrator may file a claim for the property on a form prescribed by the administrator. The claimant must verify the claim as to its completeness and accuracy.

(b) The administrator may waive the requirement in subsection (a) and may pay or deliver property directly to a person if:

(1) the person receiving the property or payment is shown to be the apparent owner included on a report filed under Section 401;

(2) the administrator reasonably believes the person is entitled to receive the property or payment; and

(3) the property has a value of less than $250.

SECTION 904. WHEN ADMINISTRATOR MUST HONOR CLAIM FOR PROPERTY.

(a) The administrator shall pay or deliver property to a claimant under Section 903(a) if the administrator receives evidence sufficient to establish to the satisfaction of the administrator that the claimant is the owner of the property.

(b) Not later than 90 days after a claim is filed under Section 903(a), the administrator shall allow or deny the claim and give the claimant notice in a record of the decision.

(c) If the claim is denied under subsection (b):

(1) the administrator shall inform the claimant of the reason for the denial and specify what additional evidence, if any, is required for the claim to be allowed;

(2) the claimant may file an amended claim with the administrator or commence an action under Section 906; and

(3) the administrator shall consider an amended claim filed under paragraph (2) as an initial claim.

(d) If the administrator does not take action on a claim during the 90 day period following the filing of a claim under Section 903(a), the claim is deemed denied.

SECTION 905. ALLOWANCE OF CLAIM FOR PROPERTY.

(a) Not later than 30 days after a claim is allowed under Section 904(b), the administrator shall pay or deliver to the owner the property or pay to the owner the net proceeds of a sale of the property, together with income or gain to which the owner is entitled under Section 607. On request of the owner, the administrator may sell or liquidate a security and pay the net proceeds to the owner, even if the security had been held by the administrator for less than three years or the administrator has not complied with the notice requirements under Section 702.

(b) Property held under this act by the administrator is subject to a claim for the payment of an enforceable debt the owner owes in this state for:

(1) child-support arrearages, including child-support collection costs and child-support arrearages that are combined with maintenance;

(2) a civil or criminal fine or penalty, court costs, a surcharge, or restitution imposed by a final order of an administrative agency or a final court judgment; or

(3) state taxes, penalties, and interest that have been determined to be delinquent or as to which notice has been recorded with the Secretary of State.

(c) Before delivery or payment to an owner under subsection (a) of property or payment to the owner of net proceeds of a sale of the property, the administrator first shall apply the property or net proceeds to a debt under subsection (b) the administrator determines is owed by the owner. The administrator shall pay the amount to the appropriate state agency and notify the owner of the payment.

(d) The administrator may make periodic inquiries of state agencies in the absence of a claim filed under Section 903 to determine whether an apparent owner included in the unclaimed-property records of this state have enforceable debts described in subsection (b). The administrator first shall apply the property or net proceeds of a sale of property held by the administrator to a debt under subsection (b) of an apparent owner which appears in the records of the administrator and deliver the amount to the appropriate state agency. The administrator shall notify the apparent owner of the payment.

SECTION 906. ACTION BY PERSON WHOSE CLAIM IS DENIED.

Not later than one year after filing a claim under Section 903(a), the claimant may commence an action against the administrator in the Superior Court to establish a claim that has been denied or deemed denied under Section 903(d). [On final determination of the action, the court may, on application, award to the [plaintiff] [prevailing party] its reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of litigation.]

Legislative Note: The bracketed language at the end of this section may be included or deleted according to the public policy of the state concerning statutory awards of attorney's fees. If the state elects to include attorney's fees, the state must decide whether to restrict the award of attorney's fees to the plaintiff regardless which side prevails or only to the prevailing party.

ARTICLE 10

VERIFIED REPORT OF PROPERTY; EXAMINATION OF RECORDS

SECTION 1001. VERIFIED REPORT OF PROPERTY.

If a person does not file a report required by Section 401 or the administrator believes that a person may have filed an inaccurate, incomplete, or false report, the administrator may require the person to file a verified report in a form prescribed by the administrator. The verified report must:

- (1) state whether the person is holding property reportable under this act;
- (2) describe property not previously reported or about which the administrator has inquired;
- (3) specifically identify property described under paragraph (2) about which there is a dispute whether it is reportable under this [act]; and
- (4) state the amount or value of the property.

SECTION 1002. EXAMINATION OF RECORDS TO DETERMINE COMPLIANCE.

The administrator, at reasonable times and on reasonable notice, may:

- (1) examine the records of a person, including examination of appropriate records in the possession of an agent of the person under examination, if the records are reasonably necessary to determine whether the person has complied with this act;
- (2) issue an administrative subpoena requiring the person or agent of the person to make records available for examination; and
- (3) bring an action seeking judicial enforcement of the subpoena.

SECTION 1003. RULES FOR CONDUCTING EXAMINATION.

(a) The administrator shall adopt rules governing procedures and standards for an examination under Section 1002, including rules for use of an estimation, extrapolation, and statistical sampling in conducting an examination.

(b) An examination under Section 1002 must be performed under rules adopted under subsection (a) and with generally accepted examination practices and standards applicable to an unclaimed-property examination.

(c) If a person subject to examination under Section 1002 has filed the reports required under Section 401 and Section 1001 and has retained the records required by Section 404, the following rules apply:

(1) The examination must include a review of the person's records.

(2) The examination may not be based on an estimate unless the person expressly consents in a record to the use of an estimate.

(3) The person conducting the examination shall consider the evidence presented in good faith by the person in preparing the findings of the examination under Section 1007.

SECTION 1004. RECORDS OBTAINED IN EXAMINATION.

Records obtained and records, including work papers, compiled by the administrator in the course of conducting an examination under Section 1002:

(1) are subject to the confidentiality and security provisions of [Article] 14 and are not public records;

(2) may be used by the administrator in an action to collect property or otherwise enforce this act;

(3) may be used in a joint examination conducted with another state, the United States, a foreign country or subordinate unit of a foreign country, or any other governmental entity if the governmental entity conducting the examination is legally bound to maintain the confidentiality and security of information obtained from a person subject to examination in a manner substantially equivalent to Article 14;

(4) must be disclosed, on request, to the person that administers the unclaimed property law of another state for that state's use in circumstances equivalent to circumstances described in this [article], if the other state is required to maintain the confidentiality and security of information obtained in a manner substantially equivalent to Article 14;

(5) must be produced by the administrator under an administrative or judicial subpoena or administrative or court order; and

(6) must be produced by the administrator on request of the person subject to the examination in an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the property.

SECTION 1005. EVIDENCE OF UNPAID DEBT OR UNDISCHARGED OBLIGATION.

(a) A record of a putative holder showing an unpaid debt or undischarged obligation is prima facie evidence of the debt or obligation.

(b) A putative holder may establish by a preponderance of the evidence that there is no unpaid debt or undischarged obligation for a debt or obligation described in subsection (a) or that the debt or obligation was not, or no longer is, a fixed and certain obligation of the putative holder.

(c) A putative holder may overcome prima facie evidence under subsection (a) by establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that a check, draft, or similar instrument was:

(1) issued as an unaccepted offer in settlement of an unliquidated amount;

- (2) issued but later was replaced with another instrument because the earlier instrument was lost or contained an error that was corrected;
- (3) issued to a party affiliated with the issuer;
- (4) paid, satisfied, or discharged;
- (5) issued in error;
- (6) issued without consideration;
- (7) issued but there was a failure of consideration;
- (8) voided [not later than 90 days] [within a reasonable time] after issuance for a valid business reason set forth in a contemporaneous record; or
- (9) issued but not delivered to the third-party payee for a sufficient reason recorded within a reasonable time after issuance.

(d) In asserting a defense under this section, a putative holder may present evidence of a course of dealing between the putative holder and the apparent owner or of custom and practice.

SECTION 1006. FAILURE OF PERSON EXAMINED TO RETAIN RECORDS.

If a person subject to examination under Section 1002 does not retain the records required by Section 404, the administrator may determine the value of property due using a reasonable method of estimation based on all information available to the administrator, including extrapolation and use of statistical sampling when appropriate and necessary, consistent with examination procedures and standards adopted under Section 1003(a) and in accord with Section 1003(b).

SECTION 1007. REPORT TO PERSON WHOSE RECORDS WERE EXAMINED.

At the conclusion of an examination under Section 1002, the administrator shall provide to the person whose records were examined a complete and unredacted examination report that specifies:

- (1) the work performed;
- (2) the property types reviewed;
- (3) the methodology of any estimation technique, extrapolation, or statistical sampling used in conducting the examination;
- (4) each calculation showing the value of property determined to be due; and
- (5) the findings of the person conducting the examination.

SECTION 1008. COMPLAINT TO ADMINISTRATOR ABOUT CONDUCT OF PERSON CONDUCTING EXAMINATION.

(a) If a person subject to examination under Section 1002 believes the person conducting the examination has made an unreasonable or unauthorized request or is not proceeding expeditiously to complete the examination, the person in a record may ask the administrator to intervene and take appropriate remedial action, including countermanding the request of the person conducting the examination, imposing a time limit for completion of the examination, or reassigning the examination to another person.

(b) If a person in a record requests a conference with the administrator to present matters that are the basis of a request under subsection (a), the administrator shall hold the conference not later than [30] days after receiving the request. The administrator may hold the conference in person, by telephone, or by electronic means.

(c) If a conference is held under subsection (b), not later than 30 days after the conference ends, the administrator shall provide a report in a record of the conference to the person that requested the conference.

(a) In this section, "related to the administrator" refers to an individual who is:

(1) the administrator's spouse, partner in a civil union, domestic partner, or reciprocal beneficiary;

(2) the administrator's child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, sibling, step-sibling, half-sibling, aunt, uncle, niece, or nephew;

(3) a spouse, partner in a civil union, domestic partner, or reciprocal beneficiary of an individual under paragraph (2); or

(4) any individual residing in the administrator's household.

(b) The administrator may contract with a person to conduct an examination under this [article]. The contract may be awarded only under [insert citation to the state competitive procurement of services of private contractors statute].

(c) If the person with which the administrator contracts under subsection (b) is:

(1) an individual, the individual may not be related to the administrator; or

(2) a business entity, the entity may not be owned in whole or in part by the administrator or an individual related to the administrator.

(d) At least 60 days before assigning a person under contract with the administrator under subsection (b) to conduct an examination, the administrator shall demand in a record that the person to be examined submit a report and deliver property that is previously unreported.

(e) If the administrator contracts with a person under subsection (b):

(1) the contract may provide for compensation of the person based on a fixed fee, hourly fee, or contingent fee;

(2) a contingent fee arrangement may not provide for a payment that exceeds [10] percent of the amount or value of property paid or delivered as a result of the examination; and

(3) on request by a person subject to examination by a contractor, the administrator shall deliver to the person a complete and unredacted copy of the contract and any contract between the contractor and a person employed or engaged by the contractor to conduct the examination.

(f) A contract under subsection (b) is subject to public disclosure without redaction under the Open Public Records Act.

SECTION 1010. LIMIT ON FUTURE EMPLOYMENT.

The administrator or an individual employed by the administrator who participates in, recommends, or approves the award of a contract under Section 1009(b) on or after the effective date of this act may not be employed by, contracted with, or compensated in any capacity by the contractor or an affiliate of the contractor for two years after the latest of participation in, recommendation of, or approval of the award or conclusion of the contract.

SECTION 1011. REPORT BY ADMINISTRATOR TO STATE OFFICIAL.

(a) Not later than three months after the end of the state fiscal year, the administrator shall compile and submit a report to the [Governor, Treasurer, Comptroller, Speaker of the Senate, and Speaker of the House]. The report must contain the following information about property presumed abandoned for the preceding fiscal year for the state:

(1) the total amount and value of all property paid or delivered under this [act] to the administrator, separated into:

(A) the part voluntarily paid or delivered; and

(B) the part paid or delivered as a result of an examination under Section 1002, separated into the part recovered as a result of an examination conducted by:

(i) a state employee; and

(ii) a contractor under Section 1009;

(2) the name of and amount paid to each contractor under Section 1009 and the percentage the total compensation paid to all contractors under Section 1009 bears to the total amount paid or delivered to the administrator as a result of all examinations performed under Section 1009;

(3) the total amount and value of all property paid or delivered by the administrator to persons that made claims for property held by the administrator under this [act] and the percentage the total payments made and value of property delivered to claimants bears to the total amounts paid and value delivered to the administrator; and

(4) the total amount of claims made by persons claiming to be owners which:

(A) were denied;

(B) were allowed; and

(C) are pending.

(b) The report under subsection (a) is a public record subject to public disclosure without redaction under [insert citation to the state freedom of information act].

SECTION 1012. DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY FOR UNREPORTED REPORTABLE PROPERTY.

If the administrator determines from an examination conducted under Section 1002 that a putative holder failed or refused to pay or deliver to the administrator property which is reportable under this act, the administrator shall issue a determination of the putative holder's liability to pay or deliver and give notice in a record to the putative holder of the determination.

ARTICLE 11

DETERMINATION OF LIABILITY; PUTATIVE HOLDER REMEDIES

SECTION 1101. INFORMAL CONFERENCE.

(a) Not later than 30 days after receipt of a notice under Section 1012, the putative holder may request an informal conference with the administrator to review the determination. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the administrator may designate an employee to act on behalf of the administrator.

(b) If a putative holder makes a timely request under subsection (a) for an informal conference:

(1) not later than 20 days after the date of the request, the administrator shall set the time and place of the conference;

(2) the administrator shall give the putative holder notice in a record of the time and place of the conference;

(3) the conference may be held in person, by telephone, or by electronic means, as determined by the administrator;

(4) the request tolls the 90-day period under Sections 1103 and 1104 until notice of a decision under paragraph (7) has been given to the putative holder or the putative holder withdraws the request for the conference;

(5) the conference may be postponed, adjourned, and reconvened as the administrator determines appropriate;

(6) the administrator or administrator's designee with the approval of the administrator may modify a determination made under Section 1012 or withdraw it; and

(7) the administrator shall issue a decision in a record and provide a copy of the record to the putative holder and examiner not later than 20 days after the conference ends.

(c) A conference under subsection (b) is not an administrative remedy and is not a contested case subject to Administrative Procedure Act. An oath is not required and rules of evidence do not apply in the conference.

(d) At a conference under subsection (b), the putative holder must be given an opportunity to confer informally with the administrator and the person that examined the records of the putative holder to:

(1) discuss the determination made under Section 1012; and

(2) present any issue concerning the validity of the determination.

(e) If the administrator fails to act within the period prescribed in subsection (b)(1) or (7), the failure does not affect a right of the administrator, except that interest does not accrue on the amount for which the putative holder was determined to be liable under Section 1012 during the period in which the administrator failed to act until the earlier of:

(1) the date under Section 1103 the putative holder initiates administrative review or files an action under Section 1104; or

(2) 90 days after the putative holder received notice of the administrator's determination under Section 1012 if no review was initiated under Section 1103 and no action was filed under Section 1104.

(f) The administrator may hold an informal conference with a putative holder about a determination under Section 1012 without a request at any time before the putative holder initiates administrative review under Section 1103 or files an action under Section 1104.

(g) Interest and penalties under Section 1204 continue to accrue on property not reported, paid, or delivered as required by this act after the initiation, and during the pendency, of an informal conference under this section.

SECTION 1102. REVIEW OF ADMINISTRATOR'S DETERMINATION.

A putative holder may seek relief from a determination under Section 1012 by:

(1) administrative review under Section 1103; or

(2) judicial review under Section 1104.

SECTION 1103. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.

(a) Not later than 90 days after receiving notice of the administrator's determination under Section 1012, a putative holder may initiate a proceeding under the Administrative Procedure Act for review of the administrator's determination.

(b) A final decision in an administrative proceeding initiated under subsection (a) is subject to judicial review by the [court] [as a matter of right in a de novo proceeding on the record in which either party is entitled to introduce evidence as a supplement to the record].

SECTION 1104. JUDICIAL REMEDY.

(a) Not later than 90 days after receiving notice of the administrator's determination under Section 1012, the putative holder may:

(1) file an action against the administrator in the Superior Court challenging the administrator's determination of liability and seeking a declaration that the determination is unenforceable, in whole or in part; or

(2) pay the amount or deliver the property determined by the administrator to be paid or delivered to the administrator and, not later than six months after payment or delivery, file an action against the administrator in the Superior Court for a refund of all or part of the amount paid or return of all or part of the property delivered.

(b) If a putative holder pays or delivers property the administrator determined must be paid or delivered to the administrator at any time after the putative holder files an action under subsection (a)(1), the court shall continue the action as if it had been filed originally as an action for a refund or return of property under subsection (a)(2).

[(c) On the final determination of an action filed under subsection (a), the [court] may, on application, award to the [plaintiff] [prevailing party] its reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses, of litigation.]

[[d)]A putative holder that is the prevailing party in an action under subsection (a)(2) for refund of money paid to the administrator is entitled to interest on the amount refunded, at the same rate a holder is required to pay to the administrator under Section 1204(a), from the date paid to the administrator until the date of the refund.

ARTICLE 12

ENFORCEMENT BY ADMINISTRATOR

SECTION 1201. JUDICIAL ACTION TO ENFORCE LIABILITY.

(a) If a determination under Section 1012 becomes final and is not subject to administrative or judicial review, the administrator may commence an action in the [court] or in an appropriate court of another state to enforce the determination and secure payment or delivery of past due, unpaid, or undelivered property. The action must be brought not later than [one] year after the determination becomes final.

(b) In an action under subsection (a), if no court in this state has jurisdiction over the defendant, the administrator may commence an action in any court having jurisdiction over the defendant.

SECTION 1202. INTERSTATE AND INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENT; COOPERATION.

(a) Subject to subsection (b), the administrator may:

(1) exchange information with another state or foreign country relating to property presumed abandoned or relating to the possible existence of property presumed abandoned; and

(2) authorize in a record another state or foreign country or a person acting on behalf of the other state or country to examine its records of a putative holder as provided in Article 10.

(b) An exchange or examination under subsection (a) may be done only if the state or foreign country has confidentiality and security requirements substantially equivalent to those in Article 14 or agrees in a record to be bound by this state's confidentiality and security requirements.

SECTION 1203. ACTION INVOLVING ANOTHER STATE OR FOREIGN COUNTRY.

(a) The administrator may join another state or foreign country to examine and seek enforcement of this [act] against a putative holder.

(b) On request of another state or foreign country, the Attorney General may commence an action on behalf of the other state or country to enforce, in this state, the law of the other state or country against a putative holder subject to a claim by the other state or country, if the other state or country agrees to pay costs incurred by the Attorney General in the action.

(c) The administrator may request the official authorized to enforce the unclaimed property law of another state or foreign country to commence an action to recover property in the other state or country on behalf of the administrator. This state shall pay the costs, including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, incurred by the other state or foreign country in an action under this subsection.

(d) The administrator may pursue an action on behalf of this state to recover property subject to this [act] but delivered to the custody of another state if the administrator believes the property is subject to the custody of the administrator.

(e) The administrator may retain an attorney in this state, another state or a foreign country to commence an action to recover property on behalf of the administrator and may agree to pay attorney's fees based in whole or in part on a fixed fee, hourly fee, or a percentage of the amount or value of property recovered in the action.

(f) Expenses incurred by this state in an action under this section may be paid from property received under this [act] or the net proceeds of the property. Expenses paid to recover property may not be deducted from the amount that is subject to a claim under this [act] by the owner.

SECTION 1204. INTEREST AND PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO ACT IN TIMELY MANNER.

(a) A holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver property within the time prescribed by this act shall pay to the administrator interest at an annual rate of [[] percent] [the rate of interest payable to the department of revenue of this state on delinquent taxes] on the property or value of the property from the date the property should have been reported, paid, or delivered to the administrator until the date reported, paid, or delivered.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Section 1205 or 1206, the administrator may require a holder that fails to report, pay, or deliver property within the time prescribed by this [act] to pay to the administrator, in addition to interest included under subsection (a), a civil penalty of $[200] for each day the duty is not performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of $[5,000].

SECTION 1205. OTHER CIVIL PENALTIES.

(a) If a holder enters into a contract or other arrangement for the purpose of evading an obligation under this act or otherwise willfully fails to perform a duty imposed on the holder under this act, the administrator may require the holder to pay the administrator, in addition to interest as provided in Section 1204(a), a civil penalty of [$1,000] for each day the obligation is evaded or the duty is not performed, up to a cumulative maximum amount of [$25,000], plus [25] percent of the amount or value of property that should have been but was not reported, paid, or delivered as a result of the evasion or failure to perform.

(b) If a holder makes a fraudulent report under this [act], the administrator may require the holder to pay to the administrator, in addition to interest under Section 1204(a), a civil penalty of [$1,000] for each day from the date the report was made until corrected, up to a cumulative maximum of [$25,000], plus [25] percent of the amount or value of any property that should have been reported but was not included in the report or was underreported.

SECTION 1206. WAIVER OF INTEREST AND PENALTY.

The administrator:

(1) may waive, in whole or in part, [interest under Section 1204(a) and] penalties under Section 1204(b) or 1205; and

(2) shall waive a penalty under Section 1204(b) if the administrator determines that the holder acted in good faith and without negligence.

ARTICLE 13

AGREEMENT TO LOCATE PROPERTY OF APPARENT OWNER HELD BY ADMINISTRATOR

SECTION 1301. WHEN AGREEMENT TO LOCATE PROPERTY ENFORCEABLE.

An agreement by an apparent owner and another person, the primary purpose of which is to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property held by the administrator, is enforceable only if the agreement:

(1) is in a record that clearly states the nature of the property and the services to be provided;

(2) is signed by or on behalf of the apparent owner; and

(3) states the amount or value of the property reasonably expected to be recovered, computed before and after a fee or other compensation to be paid to the person has been deducted.

SECTION 1302. WHEN AGREEMENT TO LOCATE PROPERTY VOID.

(a) Subject to subsection (b), an agreement under Section 1301 is void if it is entered into during the period beginning on the date the property was paid or delivered by a holder to the administrator and ending 24 months after the payment or delivery.

(b) If a provision in an agreement described in subsection (a) applies to mineral proceeds for which compensation is to be paid to the other person based in whole or in part on a part of the underlying minerals or mineral proceeds not then presumed abandoned, the provision is void regardless of when the agreement was entered into.

(c) An agreement under subsection (a) which provides for compensation in an amount that is unconscionable is unenforceable except by the apparent owner. An apparent owner that believes the compensation the apparent owner has agreed to pay is unconscionable or the administrator, acting on behalf of an apparent owner, or both, may file an action in [the appropriate court] to reduce the compensation to the maximum amount that is not unconscionable. [On the final determination of an action filed under this subsection, the [court] may, on application, award the [plaintiff] [prevailing party] its reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses of litigation.]

(d) An apparent owner or the administrator may assert that an agreement described in this section is void on a ground other than it provides for payment of unconscionable compensation.

(e) This section does not apply to an apparent owner's agreement with an attorney to pursue a claim for recovery of specifically identified property held by the administrator or to contest the administrator's denial of a claim for recovery of the property.

SECTION 1303. RIGHT OF AGENT OF APPARENT OWNER TO RECOVER PROPERTY HELD BY ADMINISTRATOR.

(a) An apparent owner that contracts with another person to locate, deliver, recover, or assist in the location, delivery, or recovery of property of the apparent owner which is held by the administrator may designate the person as the agent of the apparent owner. The designation must be in a record signed by the apparent owner.

(b) The administrator shall give the agent of the apparent owner all information concerning the property which the apparent owner is entitled to receive, including information that otherwise is confidential information under Section 1402.

(c) If authorized by the apparent owner, the agent of the apparent owner may bring an action against the administrator on behalf of and in the name of the apparent owner.

ARTICLE 14

(b) A provision of this article that applies to the administrator or the administrator's records applies to an administrator's agent.

(b) A record or other information that is confidential under law of this state other than this [act], another state, or the United States continues to be confidential when disclosed or delivered under this act to the administrator or administrator's agent.

SECTION 1403. WHEN CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION MAY BE DISCLOSED.

(a) When reasonably necessary to enforce or implement this act, the administrator may disclose confidential information concerning property held by the administrator or the administrator's agent only to:
